

Teens and Therapists: Secrets of Success

CUB-Multipurpose Room

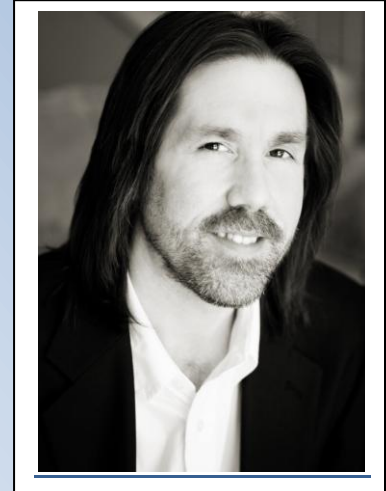

Shippensburg University

Friday, April 23, 2010

Sign in: 8-8:30

Training: 8:30 A.M.-3:00 P.M

- Learn ways to avoid ethical pitfalls with under-aged clients
- Understand the impact of pathology in adolescent populations
- Recognize high risk habits and what to do about them
- Learn strategies for engaging evasive teens
- Discover how to turn teen refusals into teen referrals

Rocky Spino,
M.S., NCC, LPC

RSVP April 16th to Becky Eby at counsel@ship.edu

Many parents and professionals struggle with getting therapy for reluctant teens. Even if adults succeed in getting these teens to the first session, prospects for positive change may be far from guaranteed. Using case studies, multi-media presentation, and audience participation, this workshop will offer strategies and ideas for helping the therapist-teen interaction achieve more connection, continuity, and change.

Sponsored by

Department of Counseling and College Student Personnel

Questions: 717-477-1668

* Lunch on your own